

Telfair Museum of Art opens nominations to the Telfair Teen Advisory Council

Telfair Museum of Art is accepting nominations from City of Savannah High School Teachers and Youth Service Organizations for current high schools students to become part of the Museum's Teen Advisory Council.

Members of the Teen Advisory Council will:

- Fulfill their school's volunteer requirements for the school year
- Work behind the scenes at the Telfair Museum of Art
- Receive valuable on-the-job-training in education, museum education, marketing, promotion and event planning
- Plan and host fun events targeted at teen audiences

Council members must hold at least a 3.0 grade point average, have a commitment to attend monthly afternoon meetings at the Telfair's Jepson Center, be willing to perform tasks assigned to them during their free time, and be willing to serve as a voice for the museum in the community.

Every nomination must include the following information:

- Nominee
Name (first and last), Name of Parent or Legal Guardian, Birthday, Grade level, GPA, Mailing Address (including Zip Code), Phone Number, and e-mail (if applicable).
- Nominator
Name, Name of High School or Service Organization, Phone Number, e-mail and a brief statement on why the nominee will be an asset to the Teen Advisory Council as a representative of the Savannah Teen Community.

Please mail or e-mail nominations to:

Vaughnette Goode-Walker
Director of Cultural Diversity
P.O. Box 10081
Savannah, Ga. 31412

or

Email: goode-walkerv@telfair.org

Nominations are due by: September 25, 2009